

Adissan : 1^{re} AOC de France en 1948

Agde : The Greeks import wine in the 6th century B.C.

Aumes : View of the plain full of vineyards from the Oppidum, 7th century B.C.

Bessan : Mrs Jacomet de Cauvigny invented rosé wine in the 19th century

Castelnau-de-Guers : The château became a gigantic wine cellar in the 19th century

Caux : A Gallo-Roman wine producer's villa in Mougères

Cazouls-d'Hérault : The Despoux de Paul family built one of the biggest wine cellars in Languedoc in the 19th century

Florensac : «Gastronomy and wines» in Vinipolis

Lézignan-la-Cèbe : In the 17th century, the château of the Ribes family became the centre of an important wine estate

Montagnac : The largest wine storage tank in Europe of the 60's with 42 000 hl

Nézignan-l'Évêque : Tour of the «mazets» dry stone huts and the «grangeots» small barns in the vineyards

Nizas : Exceptional basaltic terroir

Pézenas : Market for spirits and liqueurs from the South at the 3/6 Market Square in the 19th century

Pinet : 1^{er} PDO white wine in Occitania

Pomerols : Baroque altarpiece in gilded wood decorated with vines

Portiragnes : Storage of wine barrels on the docks in the 19th century

Saint-Thibéry : The Benedictine abbey enabled the development of grapevine cultivation

Saint-Pons de Mauchien : Exceptional view of the vineyards from the rocky peak

Tourbes : «Around the vineyards» marked trail

Vias : Preignes le Vieux, a wine estate for 2,000 years